

Kefauver Appears Vice-President Choice Stang Says Second Ward Treated Like Others

Wicks Praised as Statesman At Pre-Convention Banquet

Is Honored By Ulster GOP Club Called Stalwart In Legislature

Senator Arthur H. Wicks heard his praises sung Thursday night at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the Town of Ulster Republican Club—glowing tribute to a man who for three decades has represented Ulster county and the 34th Senatorial District as a "stalwart statesman," a "bulwark" in the state legislature and the councils of his state.

ON THE EVE of his departure for the Republican National Convention in San Francisco—the ninth he has attended as a member of the powerful New York state delegation—the senator was honored by grateful fellow Republicans at Bud and Joe's Restaurant on the East Chester street bypass. He was scheduled to fly this morning to the West Coast, accompanied by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson of Woodstock.

J. Edward Conway, a member of the New York State Commission Against Discrimination, former Ulster county judge, told approximately 200 club members and guests that he was proud to be present—"greatly and grandly proud."

HE SAID he would not go into the Senator's "biography," which was already well-known by those present who "understand full well the road of life traveled by Sen. Wicks"—a "man of the people" who came by the people, climbing to eminence through his own merit alone.

Judge Conway said he was merely proclaiming "what we all know," that Senator Wicks had "written his name large" and indelibly on the history of the great state of New York.

HE POINTED OUT that distance was required in order to view the whole man and that history would show him to have been a "towering mountain on the plain. It will speak of his battle to liberalize the Republican party, his success in enlarging the vision of some state chairmen."

History will show Senator Wicks to have been a "stalwart statesman" and "able legislator"—"the stalwart bulwark of the State of New York."

"Never on any occasion did he stoop to littleness."

HE DESCRIBED Senator Wicks as a "loyal and unswerving friend" of the needy throughout the state. He pointed out that labor recognized his welfare work and that labor itself had benefitted greatly through his efforts. He also described the senator's interest in civil rights and in youth.

He said the Republican party had "bailed and honored" Senator Wicks and in so doing had honored themselves.

Sensor Wicks is a "great man by report but a greater man by his deeds," Judge Conway stated. He said Senator Wicks had brought prestige and material benefits to Ulster county out of all proportion to its size or importance.

"Nor has he lost the common touch . . . He has won the affection of all who fought alongside him and the admiration of those who went down to defeat before him."

Judge Conway said that when (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Riesel Acid-Thrower Is Reported Slain

Two Ex-Convicts in FBI Custody For April Attack on Labor Writer

Washington, Aug. 17 (P)—The FBI today arrested two ex-convicts in connection with the acid-throwing of labor columnist Victor Riesel. The FBI said the actual acid-thrower is dead.

The announcement said FBI agents had developed evidence that the acid was thrown into the face of Riesel in New York city on April 5 by Abraham Telvi whose body, with a bullet hole in the back of the head, was found on a lower East Side street in New York in the early morning of July 28.

Telvi, 22, and a resident of Brooklyn, had a long police record. The acid attack on Riesel occurred at a time when he was actively cooperating with New York U. S. District Attorney Paul Williams in a labor racketeering investigation.

The two men taken into custody in New York today, alleged to have acted in concert with Telvi, were charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice.

They were identified by the FBI as Joseph Peter Carino, 43, arrested at his home at 124 Forsyth street and Gondolfo Miranti, 37, taken into custody at 80 Delancy street. The two were to be arraigned promptly before a U. S. commissioner in New York.

The FBI declined to say if any progress had been made toward a solution of Telvi's slaying.

Riesel, who was carrying on a crusade against labor racketeers, was assaulted on the street shortly after leaving Lindy's restaurant.

The conspiracy charge against Miranti alleged he was in Lindy's shortly before Riesel left the restaurant.

The FBI said that Carino, using the name Joseph Pilo, "met his co-conspirator, Abe Telvi in New York city and drove him to a hideout in the vicinity of Youngstown, Ohio, a few (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

French Proposal

London, Aug. 17 (P)—French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau proposed today that the Suez Canal be managed by an international authority, but with Egypt acknowledged as the canal's owner.

Egyptian officials, objecting to a western plan advanced yesterday by Secretary of State Dulles for international control, were dickered behind the scenes with Indians and Russians to block it as the Frenchman expressed his views.

Taxpayer Leader Can't Finish House

Stickles Enjoined From Building On Clifton Terrace, Lacks Permit

Corporation Counsel James J. Abernethy today announced that he has received a decision which he has filed a deed for the street area involved and hopes to get a permit. It will be known as Stickles Terrace, he said.

The corporation counsel said that Clifton Terrace is a "private street," and permission to build was refused because the applicant failed to comply with Section 36, General City Laws, of the State of New York.

The latter laws provide that no permit is to be issued if a property is not included on the official city map and is without provisions for required improvements.

A temporary injunction was first issued and the decision yes-

Formula Is Same for Appraisals Answers Protest On Reassessment

Mayor Frederick H. Stang said today in answer to questions put to him by a second ward committee concerning the city's reassessment program that he has been "unable to find any evidence that properties in the second ward have been either penalized or discriminated against in any way."

The same methods and formula were used in the second ward "as were employed in all other wards," the mayor said, and he submitted figures and other details to prove the point.

A SIX-POINT protest was filed with the mayor Tuesday following a meeting of taxpayers in the ward at 321 Foxhall avenue Monday night. The protest complained that assessments in the ward were "unreasonably high" that appraisers did not become familiar with local conditions, and that taxpayers there were being penalized for keeping their properties "neat and attractive."

Mayor Stang's reply: As a result of a meeting of some of the taxpayers in the second ward, a letter was presented to me requesting that I make public my answers to the questions contained in that letter:

I HAVE MADE a careful study of the questions raised in that letter. After consultation with the city assessor and representatives of the appraisal firm, my findings are as follows:

The lack of street improvements in the Roosevelt Park section, notably storm sewers, sidewalk and curbing was taken into consideration in setting unit land values. I, personally, raised this question with the appraisal company several times during the early stages of the revaluation program.

THE FACTORS which contribute to or detract from value are the same in Kingston as they are in any other community in the United States. The appraisers familiarized themselves with local conditions, through visual observation and through consultation with Kingston realtors and the City Engineering Department. There are factors other than those outlined in your letter which must be taken into consideration in appraising property for tax assessment purposes, notably the desirability and marketability of property.

The view has been expressed by some people that the appraisal values in the Roosevelt Park section are too low, particularly with regard to land values. This argument is apparently based on recent sales prices in this section, and undoubtedly, higher values would have been set by the appraisers if they had based land values strictly according to current sales prices.

However, their experience in other comparable communities indicated to them that these sales prices are unduly inflated due to the big demand for this particular type of property, the scarcity of such property available for purchase and, possibly, also, the low taxes levied throughout this section in the past. In setting unit land values, the appraisers considered all the advantages and disadvantages.

Three Men Flee Today From Wallkill Prison

State police, sheriff's deputies and prison guards were searching for three men who escaped from Wallkill Prison at about 8:30 a. m., today.

The escapees were listed as: George Shuts, 25, of Franklin county, described as white; five feet, 11 inches tall; weighing 170 pounds; brown eyes, brown hair, serving five to 10 years for burglary.

John Fizette, 27, of St. Lawrence county, described as white; five feet, nine inches tall; weight, 159 pounds; hazel eyes, brown hair, serving five to 10 years for first degree grand larceny, and Floyd Kaler, 48, of Wyoming county, described as five feet, 11 inches tall; weight, 170 pounds; black hair.

Prison officials said the men, who escaped in a 1949 green Ford pickup truck with canopy over the body, were wearing gray pants and gray work shirts and were bareheaded. The truck, owned by the prison, bears license plate 10187.

A spokesman for Warden Walter Wallack told The Freeman the men were believed headed north from Wallkill.

John J. Sheehy, a prison employee, said the men were working on the prison farm at the time of their escape when they stole the truck and drove away.

Kingston state police said roadblocks had been thrown up on all roads near the prison and all available troopers from stations within the zone were assigned to the search. Additional troopers were also called from Troop C headquarters at Sidney.

Undersheriff Clayton Vredenburg and County Identification Officer Earl Conro joined the search.

Prison officials said the men were believed to be unarmed and were not believed to be dangerous.

Fizette and Shuts had been transferred from Dannemora Prison at Clinton while Kaler had been transferred to Wallkill from Attica State Prison.

Each of the prisoners had served one year of his term, prison officials said.

The men were discovered missing by prison guards at about 8:50 a. m.

Early Closing Is Called Blow to Resort Business

The Ulster County Hotel and Restaurant Liquor Dealers' Association said today the 1 a. m. curfew—scheduled to become effective October 1—would be a detriment to the county's "million dollar resort business."

Robert E. Teetsel, chairman of the association's resolutions committee which is expected to submit a resolution to the Ulster County Alcoholic Beverage Control Board within the next 10 days opposing the new closing hour, said resort trade "is a major consideration."

"The 1 a. m. curfew would, we feel, be detrimental to business and deprive our state, and ultimately our county, of millions of dollars in tax revenue," Mr. Teetsel said.

He noted that Greene, Columbia and Putnam counties had decided to retain their present closing hour "because to change hours would be hard on business in the resort areas in those respective counties."

Mr. Teetsel said a report was received from the associations in those three counties which indicated their respective ABC boards decided not to change the closing hour "because of its effect on resort trade."

"Thousands are employed throughout the county by these resort places," Mr. Teetsel said, "and an earlier closing hour would stifle trade, reduce employment and generally cut down a resort industry which has been increasing in volume the last 10 years."

"We are gratified by the wholehearted support accorded our movement to oppose the 1 a. m. curfew, particularly on representatives of employees engaged in our industry," he said.

He referred to a statement received at a recent meeting of the association from George E. Yerry, Jr., business agent of Hotel and Restaurant Employees (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Stevenson Urges Bid From Floor

Adlai Is Nominee With 905½ Votes

Convention Hall, Chicago, Aug. 17 (P)—A great scramble was on today for the Democratic vice presidential nomination, thrown to the "free processes" of the party convention by Presidential Nominee Adlai Stevenson.

FIVE HOPEFULS were opening bidding for support in frantic campaigning that sought to compress into hours the kind of effort normally spread over weeks. They were:

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee who appeared to be out in front. Some of his backers were claiming he would have over 700 votes on the first ballot. It takes 686½ to win.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York city.

ON THE OTHER HAND, Texas' Lyndon Johnson, the Senate Democratic leader, who could easily corral the votes of many southerners, sought to take himself out of consideration.

He told a news conference: "My name is not going before the convention."

Johnson said he had been up most of the night talking to party leaders about the matter and had received several offers of support.

But he declared he had stuck to his original position that he was not interested in the Vice Presidency.

DESPITE THE claims made in behalf of Kefauver, it was plain there were swirling cross currents of sentiment among the haggard delegates caucusing in down town hotels and filtering back to this arena for an afternoon session.

This session was to be given over to picking the man to run with Stevenson against the anticipated GOP ticket of Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon.

The program calls for a final session of the convention tonight with windup addresses from former President Harry S. Truman and acceptance speeches by the Vice Presidential and Presidential nominees.

GORE WAS A late starter in the scramble for the No. 2 place on the ticket. His bid came into the open when he showed up at the Pennsylvania delegation's caucus to seek support.

Newsman asked if he were a candidate?

"I just became a candidate now," he replied. "This is the first step."

The Tennessee delegation called a caucus to throw its weight behind Gore.

The plan was to withdraw Gov. Frank G. Clement from consideration.

Clement, endorsed by his delegation yesterday for the No. 2 spot, is at odds politically with Kefauver.

KENNEDY PLUGGED his candidacy with an appearance before the Arizona delegation. He told it he thought the "primary problem" facing the Democrats in the November election was to pick up the southern states that went to Eisenhower in 1952.

He said he felt he might make "considerable contribution" to the ticket, and remarked that "a man of my age is not entirely without precedent." Kennedy is 39.

Nixon, incidentally, is 43.

ASKED HOW HE thought the race was shaping up, Kennedy told newsmen it appeared to him that his main opposition was

200 Protests Are Filed During Grievance Period

More than 200 persons filed protests to reassessment figures during a "grievance day" period which began Tuesday at 9 a. m., and ended at 4 p. m. yesterday, City Assessor Winfield Swart reported today.

An estimated 75 to 100 persons filed the formal protest forms yesterday, the assessor said. The first day drew about 100 and between 35 and 40 filed them Wednesday, he said. Many others were filed prior to the grievance period.

The assessor will now work on the tax roll and he estimated that it will take at least three weeks to study protests and make such adjustments as are found warranted.

The assessor's office was open for interviews prior to the start of grievance day, and Eric Mur-

West Hurley Grandmother, 3 Children Escape as Home Burns, Damage $15,000

A West Hurley grandmother and her three small grandchildren escaped unharmed early today from a six-room, two-story frame house off Route 28-A which was gutted by fire, causing an estimated damage of more than $15,000 and suffocating a hound dog.

The fire, of undetermined origin, broke out shortly after midnight on the property of Et-tore T. Raffaldi, owner of Torino's Inn. The house, located some distance in the rear of the inn, was occupied by Mr. Raffaldi's son, Frank, his wife and three children, seven years of age and under.

Chief Lewis McNally of the West Hurley Fire Department said Mrs. Raffaldi was babysitting with the grandchildren while her son and daughter-in-law were working at the inn.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Raffaldi who sent one of the grandchildren to the inn to summon help.

West Hurley firemen, who had a seven-mile drive from the fire house to the scene of the blaze, were summoned at 12:07 a. m., and fought the stubborn fire for almost five hours, being recalled at 5 a. m.

Bill, district supervisor for the Cole-Turner-Trumble Co., of Dayton, Ohio, which did the appraising, said Wednesday that "during the interviews, which have recently been completed, the company's personnel met with approximately 900 Kingston taxpayers."

Murrill said it has not been possible yet to start work on field checking "the many questions raised by individual taxpayers," and he noted, "It would appear, however, that some corrections should be made."

The reappraisal program, he said, at least resulted in establishing a yardstick, and the ground work has been laid "whereby these differences and problems can be resolved." All final decisions, he noted, rest with the tax assessor.

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Anna Perry, who passed away 3 years ago August 17, 1953.

When a Mother breathes her last farewell
The blow is more than tongue can tell
Earth seems quite another place
Without the smile of a mother's face.
Sleep on dear mother, and take your rest
For God called when he thought best.
Our loss means pain, but yours meant gain.
In heaven we hope, to meet again.

Gardiner Woman Reads in Freeman She's Trip Winner

A Gardiner woman agreed today that the best news can be found in the daily newspaper. Mrs. Elfriede M. Schlueter, of Route 55, read in Wednesday's edition of The Freeman that she was the recipient of a free trip to Bermuda, the top award offered in conjunction with August Sales Days last week.

Mrs. Schlueter, who held coupon No. 29280, claimed her award Thursday at the Kingston Chamber of Commerce office in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

She said she had "only eight or nine coupons," and the winning ticket was secured at Montgomery Ward. The number was selected from almost 200,000 coupons Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce offices. Fifteen others were selected as a special feature of the sales days.

The Chamber office said today about eight others are still unclaimed. Holders of any of the numbers listed in the Chamber office, which were published in Tuesday's Freeman, may redeem them for the announced awards at the chamber office in the hotel from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday.

On and after September 14 any unredeemed awards will be offered to alternate numbers already drawn.

The special awards were sponsored by 43 merchants as a new feature in the 1956 August Kingston Sales Days.

Possible Homicide Seen in Death

New York, Aug. 17 (AP)—Investigation of an apparent accident which killed one youth and injured another has developed into a case of possible homicide.

Early yesterday a three-foot, 30-pound slab of tile fell from atop a four-story tenement in Brooklyn and killed Antonio Ropina, 18, and injured Julius Valentine, 19.

The incident occurred in a playground adjacent to Brooklyn police headquarters. The playground had been closed for hours earlier, but the pair apparently crawled through a hole in the fence to get inside. They were seated together on a bench at the base of the tenement wall.

Ropina was killed instantly, while Valentine suffered a mangled left arm and back and head injuries.

A police search of the roof showed that the fallen section of tile had not come from directly above where the two youths had been sitting. The cornice was intact, but a section of tile had been removed from a place about 40 feet away.

Police have yet to talk with Valentine, who is in fair condition at Cumberland Hospital but still unable to undergo questioning.

Roads Discussed At Meeting of Hurley Planners

The question of requiring road contractors to post bonds was discussed at a recessed meeting of the Town of Hurley Planning Board held Thursday evening in Hurley fire house.

More than 40 persons attended the meeting, the consensus of which was that surety bonds should be waived if the contractor can supply proof of financial responsibility to assure the board the roads will be completed, Francis X. Tucker, board attorney said today.

Mr. Tucker said the width of proposed roads was also discussed. The board originally required that roads be 26 feet wide but the meeting felt that a requirement of an approximate 20-foot width be adopted.

Some county roads, he noted, were not 26 feet wide and the consensus was that a lesser width be agreed upon.

The board will hold an executive meeting Thursday, Aug. 23, he said, at which time regulations conforming with the suggestions of Thursday's meeting will be redrafted.

The final draft, he said, will be submitted to the town board.

Early Closing Is

and Bartenders Union 666 of Ulster and Sullivan counties.

Mr. Yerry said his group was opposed to the earlier closing because "this rule will force many people out of work and will not correct the conditions the board (ABC) states exist."

"The ruling of the board was arbitrary and ill advised inasmuch as no public hearings have been held," Mr. Yerry said.

Mr. Teetsel noted that "Ulster county has a tremendous resort business, not only in the summer but the winter as well."

Nixon Due in Frisco

San Francisco, Aug. 17 (AP)—Vice President Richard Nixon arrives in Republican national convention headquarters today in the midst of continued predictions by top GOP officials that he will be renominated by acclamation next week at the Cow Palace. To Adlai Stevenson's dramatic gesture in Chicago last night of throwing the Democratic choice of a vice presidential candidate open to the convention there, GOP Chairman Leonard Hall said only: "It doesn't make any difference. They've already dumped Mr. Sparkman, the candidate for vice president in 1952. They aren't in a situation such as we are where we have such a splendid team in Washington who have the record to prove they deserve to be renominated again."

Stang Says . . .

tages pertaining to each street and block in the city.

THERE ARE A NUMBER of factors which would have a direct bearing upon the sales price of a property at any particular time which, for practical reasons, can not be considered in appraising property for tax assessment purposes. Such items as landscaping, shrubbery, paved driveways, aluminum storm sash, exterior painting and interior decorating are not taken into consideration because the assessor could not reassess these items on all Kingston properties each year.

It would be manifestly unfair to assess these items on those properties which have these advantages at the time of the revaluation when in subsequent years other properties would not be assessed for these improvements since no building permit is required for these items.

The depreciation rates applied to building in the Second Ward are the same as those applied on comparable properties in all other wards. These depreciation rates were arrived at by analysis of numerous sales in order to determine the actual depreciation recognized by the buying public in purchasing older homes.

I have made a study of the appraisals in the Second Ward in comparison with the sales information gathered from individual property owners during the revaluation program. Our records show 97 sales of residential properties in the Second Ward during the six years from 1950 to 1955 inclusive. The total of these 97 sales prices is $1,428,050, which compares with the total appraised value on these same properties of $1,328,100. Of these 97 properties, 50 are houses below 30 years of age, having a total of sales prices of $814,350 compared with a total appraised value of $744,190.

The balance of 47 are older properties and show total sales of $613,700, compared with total appraisals of $583,910.

I have been unable to find any evidence that properties in the second ward have been either penalized or discriminated against in any way. The same methods and formula were used in the second ward as were employed in all other wards. On the basis of market value as indicated by sales, the appraisals in the second ward certainly are not excessive in comparison with other wards.

There is no doubt that the doubling and tripling of assessments, notably in the second, third, fourth and twelfth wards has come as a considerable shock to many people and will impose hardship in cases where incomes are limited. Nevertheless, the city assessor is charged with the responsibility for the equitable distribution of the local tax burden throughout the entire thirteen wards of this city, and the best of my knowledge and belief, the second ward is bearing only its fair share of this burden, in proportion to the value of its property, as required by the tax laws of the State of New York.

On the question of possible inequalities between individual properties within the second ward, we have had a number of cases where people have thought properties to be identical but where the investigation has shown that differences in lot sizes, building sizes and age, etc., do actually exist. Suspected inequalities of this nature have to be investigated in detail in each specific instance that may be cited. Any grievances that have been filed will be carefully considered. In cases where no grievances have been filed, or where taxpayers find themselves not in agreement with the ultimate decision made by their grievance, they may take up their grievances with the assessor's office at any time during the coming year for possible correction on subsequent tax rolls.

showed in 1952 he was a ballot-box attraction even though Eisenhower beat him by 6½ million votes.

The vote that year was 33,778,963 for Eisenhower, 27,314,992 for Stevenson.

Stevenson started back up his comeback trail not long after the 1952 elections when he made speeches all over the country to help the Democrats raise funds to pay off their debts. And he campaigned for Democratic candidates in the 1954 elections when the Democrats won back control of Congress.

He has been campaigning ever since announcing last November his desire for another try at the White House. There's no alibi for him if, after all that preparation, he couldn't line up enough votes to win here.

About the Folks

Mrs. John Palisi of 55 East Chester street has returned home after being a patient at Benedictine Hospital.

Wicks Praised

Senator Wicks announced his retirement from the Senate today, hard-bitten men who had been in politics for years "shed tears of regret."

HE SAID, however, that he (Judge Conway) shed no tears, that he was "selfish for Ulster county" and was delighted to have Senator Wicks here without the representative burden and legislative pressures he had borne for so many years.

He said that the Senator's "many private acts of kindness" bespoke a "great heart and great soul."

In conclusion he wished the Senator happiness, health and hope for the future.

Stephen Hyatt, president of the club, who presented Senator Wicks with a handsome piece of luggage for his trip, said the club was honored to have the privilege of tendering the dinner to "our friend and one of New York State's most outstanding statesmen, a man who is well-known and well-thought-of in political life throughout the United States."

Mr. Hyatt described the Town of Ulster Republican Club as "young, only five months old." In this short time, however, its membership has grown to more than 10 per cent of the enrolled Republican voters in the township.

Among the activities planned are:

"1. A rally just preceding election where everyone will have an opportunity to meet the candidates for whom they will vote.

"2. A meeting devoted to a discussion of the mechanics of party government with particular emphasis on the caucus system.

"3. An opportunity to hear and ask questions of Fred Clark who has been recently appointed by our town board as director of planning and zoning.

"4. And for our lady members the board of directors are exploring the possibilities of a fashion show in the very near future."

Senator Wicks said he was greatly moved by the tributes paid him by Judge Conway and Louis DiDonna, attorney for the town of Ulster, who served as toastmaster.

He said he was leaving Friday for the convention and hoped that the club, and Republicans in general, agreed with his position on the vice-presidential candidate.

"YOUR REPRESENTATIVE will stand, if he stands alone, to vote for Dick Nixon for vice-president of the United States." His remarks were greeted at this point with spontaneous applause.

HE DEPLORED what he described as Democratic "mud-slinging" at the national convention now in progress in Chicago, during which the Republican party had been described as "do-nothing." He rebutted such charges by pointing out that the Republican administration had brought peace, prosperity without socialism, reduced taxes and balanced the budget and "brought to the people a respect for government that hadn't existed for 20 years."

Every red-blooded American will rise up and fight against them for such a mudslinging campaign, he asserted.

Sen. Wicks said Republicans didn't have to hold their heads in shame, that the record of the party in Ulster county had been "second to none anywhere."

He said it distressed him to hear people say politics was dirty and they didn't want any part of it, that a citizen should take an interest in government for the sake of family, community and society.

Politics and government are synonymous, he told Town of Ulster Republicans. "You can't separate them."

He congratulated the Town of Ulster Republican Club for its fine start and said he wanted to thank the "unsung heroes," the town committeemen and others who work for the party out of civic interest and love of government.

introduced and spoke briefly in praise of the senator who, he said, had done more for the majority of the people in Ulster county than any other man. If one thinks back carefully he realizes how brilliant the senator's services to the county have been, he said.

IN HIS REMARKS, toastmaster DiDonna begged indulgence to be permitted to "do a bit of testifying for our honored guest . . . I want to testify to all of you of just a couple of the things I've heard and seen. This past March I had the opportunity of being in the New York State Senate chamber when in the midst of the fastest shuffle of 5,000 proposed amendments to the New York laws, being considered by the Senate, things came to a dead standstill. The majority leader got up and in no conservative language paid great tribute to our senator. The minority leader did the same.

"The senator humbly and most sincerely thanked his fellow senators for their unforgettable fellowship which extended over the past 30 years, but what impressed me most was the same humble and most sincere words of gratitude which the senator extended to the press, to the secretaries and clerks, to the doormen and to the elevator men, all whose part is important but too often overlooked by those who attain high office."

"More testimony. Ladies and gentlemen, will you kindly summon in your minds what 30 years on the job means. No, ladies and gentlemen, not merely on the job, but fighting on the job for his constituents for 30 years."

Mrs. Wicks received a standing ovation from the audience.

Space Sold Out At Dutchess Fair

Dutchess County's 111th Fair at Rhinebeck is "a complete sell-out," Secretary Richard C. Murray said today. The fair will open Friday, Aug. 24, and run for six days and nights through Wednesday, Aug. 29. Children are to be admitted free on the first and last days.

AN EMERGENCY order for about 9,000 square feet more of tents went out this week when it was discovered that cattle entries would overtax the three new 40 by 100 feet permanent sheds and three others owned by the 4-H Clubs. This was in addition to 43,000 square feet of tents ordered earlier by Mr. Murray.

Mr. Murray said more than 60 commercial exhibitors have purchased all available space inside exhibit halls, and outside space "is just about gone." Further, he said, officials were pleased to learn that entries in all competitive fields were running ahead of last year's all-time record fair.

Adding to the convenience of exhibitors and spectators alike, new permanent hardtop roads have been installed through the fairgrounds, replacing the previously oiled roads. The complete grounds also will be sprayed before opening day to reduce insects to a minimum.

Mr. Murray said he has received word that the famous eight-horse A. Heuser-Busch brewery team of Clydesdale horses, known to all television fans, will be on the grounds to perform each afternoon and evening.

THE BIG Reithoffer Shows, known as the cleanest carnival on the road, will be set up in advance of the fair and be ready on opening day. It has a special children's section.

Queen of Rock N' Roll Lillian Briggs will be seen in person on opening day; the WLW Midwestern Hayride and square dancers will perform Saturday, Sunday and Monday; and Russell Arms, Jill Corey and Zippy the Chimp on the final two days. Midget auto racing championships are slated Saturday afternoon, Aug. 25.

Young kangaroos, animals which grow to a seven-foot height and may weigh 300 pounds, are less than an inch long at birth.

Officer Faces Assault In Divorcee's Shooting

New York, Aug. 17 (AP)—A policeman has been charged with felonious assault in the shooting of a divorcee in her West Side apartment.

Authorities report the policeman, John McNeill, 26, who is estranged from his wife, seriously wounded Mrs. Catherine Keenan, 28, during an argument.

McNeill says the shooting was an accident, that his service revolver discharged while he had placed it on a table.

Following formal charges against McNeill yesterday, Asst. Atty. Manuel Graymore said: "She (Mrs. Keenan) has given enough information to book him on this charge."

McNeill was off duty when the shooting occurred Wednesday night. He was suspended early yesterday.

McNeill's wife and their two children reside in Brooklyn. Mrs. Keenan is the mother of two.

Bela Lugosi Dies

Hollywood, Aug. 17 (AP)—Bela Lugosi, famous for his portrayal of the role of "Dracula" on stage and screen, and only recently conqueror of himself after 17 years of drug addiction, died late yesterday of natural causes. He was 73. After a long and active career in motion pictures, the Hungarian-born actor surrendered himself to Los Angeles authorities last year, saying he was a hopeless drug addict and wanted a chance of rehabilitation. He said he had started taking demerol in England in 1938 and never had been able to completely free himself from the use of drugs in one form or another.

Briefly Told

Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP)—A fourteen-year-old boy, accused of the June 29 shotgun slaying of Alan Ross of Wyandach, L. I., after the two boys had argued about doing household chores, has been sentenced to a correctional institution.

Children's Court Judge Don H. Stacy yesterday ordered Richard A. Parker committed to the New York State Agricultural and Industrial School at Industry. No term was specified.

Parker and the 13-year-old Ross boy were boarders at the home of Millard Wells in the nearby town of Palermo.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 17 (AP)—The General Electric Co. has announced a new all-transistor pocket radio which will play up to 10,000 hours on one set of rechargeable batteries.

The company said yesterday the rechargeable cells are inserted into the radio in place of standard mercury or carbon penlight batteries. They will play 50 hours and can be re-energized as many as 200 times by plugging into an electric outlet overnight.

Ten thousand hours is the equivalent of two hours playing every day over 13 years.

Durham, N. H., Aug. 17 (AP)—Former Postmaster General James A. Farley has been chosen as a recipient of the seventh annual Cardinal Newman award, chairman of the Advisory Committee of the John Henry Newman Honorary Society, announced Thursday.

Father O'Connor, Catholic chaplain at the University of New Hampshire, said the award medal will be presented to Farley Sept. 1 by the Most Rev. Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago, at the Chicago convention of the National Newman Club Federation.

Farley will be cited as a "distinguished citizen and statesman who in a special way has won the admiration and esteem of the Catholic youth of America."

Massena, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP)—Pretty soon we'll need traffic cops on the northern lakes or St. Lawrence river. Distance swimmers take to the rapids just like the English Channel.

The latest attempt was made by Nicholas Goessi, 25, of Iroquois, Ont. Goessi, a Swiss construction worker, came out of the St. Lawrence river Wednesday after covering 30 miles on a planned swim from Cardinal, Ont., to Montreal, a distance of about 120 miles.

It took Goessi six hours to cover the 30 miles but when he neared Wagner Island at the head of a two-mile-long rapid he was talked out of the water by three fishermen.

The fishermen told him it would be suicide to attempt the rapids. So Goessi finally gave up and began hitchhiking, in his bathing suit, back to Iroquois.

New York, Aug. 17 (AP)—Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy has asked the Youth Councils of the city to step up their aid in the "vital task" of combating the rise in juvenile delinquency.

He said that the police "cannot do this job alone." Kennedy's appeal to leaders of the Youth Councils to increase their efforts as the new school year starts was made last night at an unusual meeting at police headquarters called to intensify the city's war on delinquency.

The councils are citizen groups working in conjunction with each of the 81 police patrol precincts in the city.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP)—Last ditch efforts to obtain a stay of execution for convicted rape-slayer Joseph Reade, Jr., of Jamestown have failed.

Judge Charles S. Desmond of the State Court of Appeals yesterday denied a motion by Reade's attorneys to delay the execution scheduled for the week of Aug. 27 in Sing Sing Prison.

Reade, 27, was convicted last November of the double rape-slaying of his brother's wife Beverly Reade, 26, and daughter Cheryl Lynn, 19 months, on July 11, 1955.

His defense was based on the claim that he was insane.

Million Recovered

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP)—The state has recovered more than a million dollars of state funds pocketed by Orville E. Hodge, ousted state auditor awaiting sentence to prison after pleas of guilty of misapplying state money. Atty. Gen. Latham Castle, in announcing the amount of restitution made by the Republican state official, predicted yesterday that the state will "recover all the money" taken by Hodge.

'No Regrets'—Harry

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP)—Former President Truman said today he has "no regrets" over his fight in vain for Averell Harriman's nomination as President and would fight just as hard to get nominee Adlai Stevenson elected. Truman told reporters accompanying him on his usual before-breakfast walks that he feels "just like any other Democrat would after a party fight."

Armstrong Cork Offer Accepted by Union

Fulton, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP)—An 11th-hour offer in the face of a threatened strike has been accepted by members of a textile workers union local at the Armstrong Cork Co.

Workers voted their acceptance yesterday on an offer a company spokesman said called for an eight-cent-an-hour increase across the board, with adjustments up to three-cent-an-hour for skilled jobs. The spokesman said the increase would bring the lowest wage rate to $1.61 an hour.

The union has 370 members at the plant, which employs about 500 in the manufacture of lineoleum and other types of floor covering. There were three dissenting votes on the company offer.

The union originally set its strike deadline for midnight on Wednesday but deferred its walkout when the company made a new contract offer.

Benson Scores Plank

Denver, Aug. 17 (AP)—The farm plank in the Democratic platform was criticized last night by Secretary of Agriculture Benson as "a tossed salad composed of inaccuracies, half truths, platitudes and promises impossible to fulfill." It is noteworthy for the things it omits," he declared in a statement given reporters during a 20-minute stop here while flying from Washington to Idaho Falls, Idaho, for a speech. Benson said that controls over farmers would be necessary if the Democratic promise to support livestock prices was carried out.

Second Spot Has No Interest for Beaten Harriman

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP)—Averell Harriman, defeated for the Democratic presidential nomination, said today he is not interested in the vice presidency.

The New York governor told newsmen he would appear on the convention floor at today's final session, but only as a delegate.

He said the vice presidency is an increasingly important office—but that he preferred to continue as governor of New York and to seek reelection to that post in 1958.

Only minutes after the national convention chose Adlai Stevenson as its presidential nominee, Harriman pledged to support Stevenson in his campaign against President Eisenhower.

Asked whether he would campaign actively for Stevenson, he replied:

"Of course I will." Stevenson later paid a courtesy call on Harriman in the latter's hotel suite.

Wagner Is Aspirant

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City announced formally early today that he is an aspirant for the Democratic vice presidential nomination. He is the third avowed candidate, although others have indicated they would be receptive. Sens. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee had announced earlier. The party's national convention is due to pick later today a man to run in the No. 2 spot with Adlai E. Stevenson.

Lay Helpless 4½ Days

Martinez, Calif., Aug. 17 (AP)—A physical therapist lay helpless for 4½ days beside a highway after wrecking his automobile in avoiding a deer on the road. Daniel G. Arnold, 46, was hospitalized with a broken pelvis, but was reported "in fine shape" today by attendants. He was found yesterday by Emil Reber, who for the third day noticed skid marks of Arnold's car and investigated. Arnold left home at 6:10 a. m. Sunday for his job at Contra Costa County Hospital in Martinez.

NEW BASEBALL WRINKLE

Owners of baseball teams are pretty conservative, but they do change. The American League owners have just agreed to a revolutionary scheme which a few years ago would never have stood a chance. They have voted that 28 of the schedule's 154 games shall be with National League teams.

These games would count in the standings of both leagues. The National League has yet to take the question up, but naturally the advocates of the plan are encouraged by the progress already made.

The scheme is a recognition that baseball cannot simply stand pat. Radio and television have cut into the attendance, and other sports have taken their toll. Something had to be done to stir up new interest. Substituting three new major league cities for locations which had ceased to pay is one step which has justified itself. Now comes this new plan.

American Leaguers would be thrilled to see Stan Musial, Ted Kluszewski, Willie Mays and other National stars in action. So would National League spectators jump at the chance to watch Mickey Mantle, Ted Williams, Al Kaline and other leaders of the younger circuit. Most fans will hope that the National League will vote yes.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

It is understandable that the Icelanders may be a bit tired of playing host to American soldiers. Our troops have been there pretty continuously since 1940, when we first occupied the island as a protective measure.

But Iceland's argument that the present 150-million-dollar NATO base at Keflavik is no longer needed because of improvements in the world situation seems like a risky rationalization. As a matter of fact, NATO has formally rejected Iceland's plea for troop withdrawals based on this argument.

Things might be different if Iceland had its own armed forces to man such a base, but it does not. Without U. S. soldiers the strategic steppingstone for our intermediate bombers would be defenseless.

Iceland says it wants to stay in NATO. That being so, the only real contribution it can make to Western defense is to swallow its distaste for foreign soldiers on its soil and continue to let us operate the vital Keflavik bastion.

BEHIND THE GAME

Few shows exert a greater or more sustained power of fascination than the political conventions, which offer everything from low comedy to the highest drama. For all their periods of dullness, they are entertainment of a sort rarely matched.

This year more people are seeing, hearing and reading about the conventions than ever before. It is a fair guess that by the time these great shows are over with, the American people will know more about the horse-trading and hoopdodo of presidential politics than they have ever known before.

In a sense, that is all to the good. Yet there is a danger in it, too. There is the danger that the real human issues will tend to be obscured behind the outer political show.

Politics often seems like a game, with players full of team spirit rushing about saying and doing things they wouldn't normally dream of saying and doing. But the important thing to remember about this game is that its far more than that; it is our way of dealing with the problems that confront us. That is the serious purpose behind the game. It must not be forgotten.

THE COST OF CRIME

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI states: "We complain about high taxes, but last year crime cost every man, woman and child in the United States $122, or a staggering estimated total of twenty billions of dollars. Perhaps this figure could become more meaningful if we realized that for every dollar spent on education, crime cost $1.46; and for every dollar which went to the

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
CAMPAIGN SPEECHES

While the master minds at any convention are busy making their deals, the delegates are usually amused by a torrent of oratory. The orators are selected either because they are currently important or because they are prospectively significant. The greatest of such orators for all time was William Jennings Bryan, who carved out a career for himself by his gift of speech.

Bryan had no microphone to help him and was fortunate in the possession of a glorious, soul-touching voice, the lower register of which was as moving as Edouard de Reszke's of those years. The microphone seems to have ruined oratorical voices because the speakers no longer possess great lung power but have learned rather to comfort themselves with the narrow radius of the microphone, which if it should unfortunately go dead for a moment, leaves upon the ear the inarticulate sounds of a pip-squeak.

William Jennings Bryan not only possessed a voice but he knew his native tongue, English, a rare advantage in any days. He was of the tradition of Daniel Webster and Henry Ward Beecher, men who spoke their language with precision and beauty. His "Cross of Gold" speech in the 1896 Democratic Convention unexpectedly won him the nomination for the Presidency. Bryan was a Populist and what he said he meant and this is demonstrable by his consistency until he died after serving the Woodrow Wilson Administration. His span was long and his profession was oratory.

Bryan naturally came to mind as one listened to the keynote speech by Governor Frank Clement of Tennessee if only as a contrast. Bryan was eloquent; Clement was forensic. The difference is not only in the spirit of man but in the grasp of content. Clement harangued. It was what could be called a fighting speech, but whom was Clement fighting? Certainly his "Nixon, Dixon and Yates" did not reflect unfavorably upon anyone but raised the ghost of "Martin, Barton and Fish," the Rooseveltian trio that was intended to amuse not to castigate.

Nor did it become a Democratic keynote to refer to President Eisenhower's illness, considering that Franklin D. Roosevelt was a very sick man but four times a candidate and elected and the fourth time obviously on the verge of death. And among the Democrats, Lyndon Johnson is a cardiac case and Stuart Symington has high blood pressure; and among the Republicans, Christian Herter suffers from arthritis. When men pass 50, they get things and it really makes little difference. Harriman came out of an operation to run for the Presidency—an operation which a quarter of a century ago frightened the families of those who had to undergo it but today is routine.

So, it would seem that Clement stooped too low to make an unnecessary point which were not so young, he would not have thought proper. In fact, only he and Nixon seem to be whole, but who knows for how long? The sort of ad hominem oratory that Frank Clement practiced is usually relished at the amount as one belly-laughs at seeing a fat man slip on a banana peel. If the Democrats criticize Nixon for his rough-and-tumble speech-making in 1954, Clement has outdone Nixon.

None of this is really necessary, particularly at a time when the President had to call leading Democrats away from their convention to lay before them the national peril in the Suez situation. Anyone can poke fun at John Foster Dulles who lays himself open all the time, probably because, doing his job, he does not care. Nevertheless, thoughtful man would try to remember that Dulles inherited a whole series of problems that have been in the making since World War I and are now coming to a head historically. A thoughtful man would not imperil Dulles' usefulness at a moment when he must negotiate with a greater number of antagonistic or diffident powers. Frank Clement may have relished the cheers of his audience, but did he ask what kind of an audience Dulles will face in London on the 16th of this month when he needs to try to keep the United States out of war without damaging our entire defensive structure? Clement probably never gave it a thought. He was just delivering a "campaign speech," which no one is supposed to take seriously, not even he who delivers it.

That Body of Yours

VITAL SIGNS IN PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

We have been discussing for the last few days all that the physician can find out about a person even before he examines them physically. This is in regard to patients with functional rather than organic (true) disease.

First let us consider the pulse. It is well known that the pulse rate usually is elevated during emotional upset or nervous strain. It must be realized that a simple tachycardia (rapid heart beat) may be so marked as to suggest one of the types of more serious tachycardia. The "resting" pulse rate has little significance when the rest is taking place in the physician's office. A sleeping pulse rate has much more value.

Everyone has been taught that the systolic pressure (the higher pressure when the heart is contracting and squeezing out blood) may vary widely in situations of stress. Most physicians know that the systolic blood pressure may rise to relatively high levels in the presence of an anxiety state or emotional upset and that it does not prove the presence of true high blood pressure (hypertension). It is less widely known that the diastolic (the lower pressure when the heart is dilating to allow more blood in from the veins) also may vary rather widely. It is best to determine the blood pressure twice—at the beginning of the examination and perhaps an hour later. It is common for the systolic pressure to drop from, for example, 210 to 160 but the diastolic pressure (which is the more important) also may drop from perhaps 112 to 90. The average or normal blood pressure, if normal is the word that can be used as each one of us varies, is about 120/80. That is 120 systolic and 80 diastolic.

Nervous people are very apt to have a high temperature when taken by mouth. It is commonplace to obtain such readings between 99 and 100 degrees F. (the normal is 98.6). It is very difficult to draw a line between high oral (by mouth) temperature and true low grade fever but any temperature over 100 degrees F. ought to be considered as having an organic basis until proved otherwise.

There is probably no single sign of anxiety which more completely betrays a strictly functional (not true or organic) disorder than sighing breathing. The typical sighing respiration of the anxious patient is not found in any organic disease syndrome. The sighing may be so pronounced and frequent that an abnormally prolonged and deep breathing state develops right in front of the examiner. Hyperventilation is a very important functional symptom and often is overlooked. A hyperventilation test should be performed during the examination of every patient who complains of spells or blackouts.

Tomorrow we will consider the changes in the skin which may occur in a functional patient.

BABSON on BUSINESS

Babson Park, Mass., Aug. 17—My grandson, Roger Babson Webber, is much interested in the study and relationship of future consumer purchasing to the books which people now read, the phonograph records they now buy, and the movies they now attend. He feels that these may be good barometers of future business changes. Recently he has been calling to my attention that a best-selling record has been the song "Sixteen Tons."

This is a song of a man working in the mines, whose job was to dig sixteen tons of "number nine coal" every day and who bought all his supplies at the company store. Although he worked for years, he never could get out of debt. Having been taught that all debts should be paid, he prayed to St. Peter to give him more time before "calling me home." My grandson feels that one reason this record has had such a big sale is that it represents the feelings of millions of consumers who are heavily in debt to some store.

OF COURSE, consumers have a perfect moral right to borrow in order to enjoy automobiles, refrigerators, radios, and probably television sets. There is no moral reason why a working man should not be entitled to use credit—as well as his employer—even though this is a custom which did not prevail fifty years ago. Probably modern advertising has been the force to bring about this change; now even conservative banks, which scorned such consumer borrowing a few years ago, are soliciting it.

The "Five and Ten-Cent" variety stores have built up a huge business on all cash, no delivery, and now self-service basis. There will always be a field for such stores, but to operate successfully, they must get the benefit of huge buying power through large chains. A great many consumers, however, demand credit, delivery, and more personal attention. Naturally, they must pay for these privileges, and if the local merchant doesn't grant them it is very difficult for him to continue in business. Also I understand that selling on installment tends to bring the customer back to the store every month, thus stimulating further sales.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS are not determined by bankers or politicians or even by the leaders in your community. Now, my grandson's important question today is whether consumers are getting tired and want to rest, or whether they are still determined to "keep up with the Joneses." Probably almost every reader of this paper is anxious to do both, and for a time this will continue to be possible, with a further increase in retail sales. If, however, the tide changes and retail sales fall off, the retailer will buy less from the manufacturer, the manufacturer will reduce the number of his employees, and the purchasing power of the country will decline. This could develop into a very serious vicious circle.

I see no sign of this at the present time. In fact, if it should come now, Congress would take immediate steps to check it. Probably the proposed tremendous new road-building campaign is partly to insure continued prosperity. In case there should be a severe slackening in installment sales, new building, and the automobile industry.

WE SHOULD not suddenly abandon installment purchases. But we all—whether merchants or consumers—should avoid getting into the pessimistic mood of the poor fellow digging the "sixteen tons of number nine coal." Certainly our appropriations for advertising should continue, as advertising is the life blood of business. On the other hand, it may be wise for consumers to avoid further debt and for merchants to put more emphasis on cash transactions.

I have often suggested to merchants that they have a price differential between cash and installment sales, but they tell me this is practically impossible. It seems, however, that the merchants' associations could prevent the situation from becoming worse. In the meantime, I throw out the question of what would happen to retail trade, general employment, and our present prosperity if fifty percent of the families should suddenly get discouraged like our "sixteen ton" friend, and stop buying on installments altogether. Or, what would happen if the banks and merchants started to repossess automobiles, refrigerators, television sets, and other things?

Stevenson's Sister and Daughter-in-Law Are Close By Him at Chicago Convention

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP) — The women close to Adlai Stevenson are two—a dignified, graying sister called "Buffie" and a 21-year-old daughter-in-law, Nancy. "Nancy," short-haired blonde wife of Adlai Stevenson, Jr., expects a baby in early November. It will be the former Illinois governor's first grandchild.

Should the man she calls "Guv" get to the White House, Nancy said in an interview she and young "Ad," 24, wouldn't move in with him—"we want our own house, even if it's a tiny apartment."

Mrs. Ives, 59, said she would serve as official hostess at the White House if her brother asked her, but the decision was up to him.

Mrs. Ives was Stevenson's official hostess when he was governor of Illinois and after he and Mrs. Ellen Borden Stevenson were divorced in 1949.

Mrs. Ives is the wife of a retired career diplomat, Ernest Ives, and has had extensive experience in entertaining. Before her husband retired in 1939, the two lived in Copenhagen, Stockholm, Belfast and Peoria, South Africa.

Mrs. Ives knows Washington, too. She made her debut there when her father was special assistant to Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels.

The young Adlai Stevensons are staying this summer at Stevenson's farm home at Libertyville, Ill., 40 miles from Chicago.

In the fall, young Adlai will return to his last year of studies at the Harvard Law School in Cambridge, Mass. There, the young Stevensons have an apartment where the dining room is going to be the nursery, too. Nancy told reporters a story of a young couple having fun painting their apartment, building shelves and eating hamburger meat "because it's cheap."

"You've heard of the book, a 1,001 Ways to Cook Hamburger," she said. "Well I think we've tried it 1,004."

The young Stevensons were married in Louisville, Ky., Nancy's home, three weeks after she was graduated from Smith College in 1955. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Anderson of Louisville.

UNCLE JOHN'S NEW WIFE

"My sister died two years ago. Her husband has recently remarried. My children have always called him 'Uncle John.' What I would like to know is, what do my children call his wife who is a complete stranger to them?"

Ask Uncle John if they may call her "Aunt Mary" or what would he prefer?

Funeral Flowers

Dear Mrs. Post: The father of one of the girls in our office just died and we would like to send a floral piece. I am in charge of sending the flowers and am not at all sure to whom they should be sent. Should they be sent to the family, or to the deceased person?

Answer: They are sent to "the funeral of Mr. John Smith" and a card is included with a few words of sympathy from the donors.

On Being Introduced

Dear Mrs. Post: When a middle-aged woman is seated at a party and other women guests arrive who are strangers to her and they are brought over and introduced to her, is it necessary that she rise from her chair to acknowledge these introductions?

Answer: It depends on how it happens. If, after being introduced, the lady stands talking to her then she has to rise; but merely bowing to her she need not rise.

Evening Bag

Dear Mrs. Post: When carrying a small evening bag, is it correct to hold it in one's hand while dancing?

Answer: Yes, if held in your hand and not hanging by its chain.

We all know that the 25th wedding anniversary is silver but forget the others. Mrs. Post lists each wedding anniversary, gifts and celebration in leaflet E-7, "Wedding Anniversaries." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Call Fair Largest, Best; 25,000 Attends Two Days

Ideal weather and an attendance of more than 25,000 persons combined to make the 1956 Ulster County Fair, which closed Thursday at 5 p. m., "the largest and best in its history by a wide margin."

Fair officials were busy today "cleaning up," but the task was made easier in the knowledge the event was a complete success.

Albert Kurdt, secretary of the Ulster County Agricultural Society, Inc., said today the fair "was the largest and best in its history by a wide margin."

He said more than 25,000 persons attended the two-day event "with the peak attendance of 10,000 being reached Wednesday evening."

Praise was heaped upon fair officials by Ralph Clark, inspector for the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets, who described it as a "good clean fair." He said fair officials had done "a real nice job."

An innovation in the fair layout this year was the installation of tents in Dietz Stadium to accommodate the large crowds. Mr. Kurdt said if the fair had been held only in Forsyth Park, they would never have gotten all the people in.

Mr. Kurdt said this feature provided more room and there were "only a few complaints" about the walking distance from the park to the stadium to view those exhibits.

Truman Power Is Deflated With Adlai's Victory

Chicago, Aug. 17 (AP)—The landslide nomination of Adlai Stevenson today left former President Harry S. Truman with only a trace of the power he once wielded in the Democratic Party.

A WEEK AGO, Truman made a triumphant entry into Chicago for the Democratic National Convention. Stevenson and emissaries from other contenders for the party's presidential nomination met him at the train, vying for his favor.

The next day, Truman went all-out for Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and organized a drive to stop Stevenson. He had some harsh things to say about Stevenson's fighting qualities, and Stevenson's espousal of moderation.

Last night, the convention gave Stevenson the nomination by acclamation—and Truman was shorn of all but his past glories.

SMILING GRIMLY and gamely, Truman offered Stevenson his full campaign support even as he pondered whether the former Illinois governor would accept it. The convention will hear from Truman once more, when he addresses the closing session tonight. He is sure to voice his backing for the new ticket against President Eisenhower and the Republicans.

The 300-foot wharf, once owned by the Gorton Pew Fisheries, was more than 100 years old and the favorite subject of artists through the years. Three of the buildings were owned by the Gloucester Lobster Co. and the Seaview Lobster Co. The fourth was a storage shed at the Gloucester Yacht Yard.

State Bureau's Survey to Seek Farmers' Opinion

Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 17—Farmers' opinion is being gathered throughout New York State by means of a unique survey, the New York Farm Bureau has announced.

Basis of the survey is a four-page opinionnaire listing about 50 questions on local, state, and national issues. The opinionnaire is being completed by small groups of farm families and mailed to their county organization.

Results of the survey-of-opinion will influence Farm Bureau's policy for 1957.

"This is the first time we know of where New York farmers have been asked what they want done on many specific issues," Don Wickham, president of the New York Farm Bureau claimed.

WILD ANIMALS AT GAME FARM—One of the largest shipments of wild animals ever to arrive in America has been unloaded at the Catskill Game Farm. There were 39 camels in this shipment from Australia. Recent arrivals included 90 Wallabies (small kangaroos) also from Australia and 100 prairie dogs, known as the "Comedians of the Desert." Other arrivals the past month were Paca (giant guinea pigs) that dwell among the shores of the Amazon, several Brazilian Capybara (water pigs) and Tucons, the magnificent, colorful jungle bird with the tremendous, colorful beak. A 30 per cent increase in visitors over last year is reported by the director of the farm, where there are over 2000 wild and tame animals on exhibition.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

With Homeseekers Savings and Loan Association soon going uptown to their new building I just ran across a picture of their place back in 1892 in a book called "Kingston and Rondout." They write about it: "The Homeseekers' Cooperative Savings and Loan Assn. of this city of Kingston, Rondout, New York, is the successor of the Home Cooperative Savings and Loan Assn. which was organized in July, 1889." I see that now in 1956 they call themselves Homeseekers' Savings and Loan Assn.

They issued their first series of stock in August, 1889. By a clerical error, the number of shares of stock, was limited to 1,000 and the phenomenal growth of the society soon made it necessary to ask that the limit to shares be increased to 10,000. In order to accomplish this, a new name had to be taken and a new organization formed. Thus the name Homeseeker took place of the Home.

The item further stated: The first year's business showed a surplus or profit of $1,133.88 on which a dividend of 12 per cent was declared and some $167.74 was placed in reserved fund. The 2nd year's business showed a surplus of $3,550.05 on which again a dividend of 12 per cent was declared and some $846.86 was carried to reserve fund. The third year's business ending July 31, 1892 showed a surplus of $5,797.91 on which a dividend of 10 per cent was declared and $819.42 carried to the reserve fund making the total amount in reserve fund $1,833.92. One share of stock in each series was worth on July 31, 1892, as follows:

First series $44.54.
Second series $27.98.
Third series $13.20.

Loaning was on first mortgages on real estate only in Ulster county "where we can show our members where every dollar is invested and being able to show every bond and mortgage and a record of the same in the county clerk's office. The Homeseekers' Cooperative Savings and Loan Assn. ought not to be confused with any national concern who have never loaned a dollar here. Hundreds of people who joined this society in 1889 and 1890, find themselves in possession of a nice little sum now and they wonder how easily they saved it."

This 90 page book by George F. Bacon is full of old pictures of Kingston such as I have never seen before. There is Wall street with its trolley track, and I notice large wooden signs that shoot out over the sidewalk from the second story. Many have emblems such as clocks for watchmakers and glasses for those who sold eye-glasses. I recognize some of the brick buildings. Union avenue in Rondout with the trolley tracks making the curve up Broadway past Mill street, proves those buildings are over 60 years old for they are still in good condition today. Little change has been made to the buildings proper. There is quite a write-up on Solomon Vogel who ran the Empire Sale and Exchange Stable at 86 Abeel street in Rondout. He originated the firm in 1857 and was a native of Germany. It was known as one of the best equipped sale and exchange stables in this section. The most valuable horses were entrusted to his care. His stable had 1,800 square feet in dimensions and thoroughly fitted up with every facility required for such an establishment. "Horses placed here on sale, or for exchange are assured the best of care and an abundance of proper food, and will be shown to their best advantage, and to the satisfaction of their owners," the item said.

Burdette Eyes Shutout Mark

By ED WILKS
(The Associated Press)

Lew Burdette, with or without an illegal "spitter," stands a chance of becoming the National League best shutout pitcher in 14 years while figuring as one of the big guys in Milwaukee's battle for the pennant.

The 29-year-old righthander, who had only seven shutouts in his five-year major league career before this season, added his sixth of the campaign with a neat five-hit, 8-0 victory last night over the St. Louis Cardinals—when, by the way, lead the claim that the stuff Burdette throws isn't always dry.

"Criminy," says Card Manager Fred Hutchinson, "you can sit on the bench and see him load 'em."

WITH HIS SIX shutouts, Burdette—who denies the "spitter" charges—is the first NL righthander to throw that many in one season since the Phil's Robin Roberts did it to lead the league in 1951. The 10 Mort Cooper hung up for the Cards in 1942 hasn't been touched since, and no NL pitcher has counted seven shutouts in one year since Harry Brecheen, another Card, in 1948.

Last night's job gave Burdette 15 victories and a league-leading earned run average of 2.53, but more important, it pushed the Braves' edge to 3 games before opening another crucial four-game series with third place Cincinnati tonight. The Redlegs slipped to third with a 4-2 loss to the Chicago Cubs that allowed Brooklyn to regain second (by seven percentage points) with a 13-inning, 10-9 victory over the New York Giants.

Pittsburgh made it two in a row over Philadelphia, 4-1. In the American, Boston's Willard Nixon, riding a no-hitter for seven innings, two-hit the New York Yankees for a 2-1 decision. That trimmed the Yanks' lead to 9½ games as runner-up Cleveland beat Detroit 5-4. Chicago's White Sox defeated Kansas City 6-5 in the only other game scheduled.

THREE OF THE hits off Burdette were by Stan Musial—one a double that gave the man the NL extra-base-hit record with 1,072, one more than Mel Ott managed in 22 seasons. The Braves iced it with five runs in the first inning to beat Wilmer Mizell. Four straight walks, a wild pitch and two singles, one a two-run knock by Burdette who had three RBIs for the game, provided the big opening frame. Duke Snider's 33rd home run—his first off a southpaw this season—broke up a 4 hour, 48 minute battle for the Dodgers. It came on a 3-2 pitch by Lefty Dick Littlefield, sixth Giant pitcher. Hank Thompson and Willie Mays each had three run homers for the last place New Yorkers, with Thompson's a pinch-hit swing that tied it in the sixth. Don Drysdale, 10th hurler used in the 33-hit game, was the winner as the Brooks salvaged the finale in a three-game series.

SAM JONES fanned 13, high for one game in the NL this season, while knocking off the Redlegs on a seven-hitter. Chicago's Dee Fondy and Redleg rookie Frank Robinson, who fanned four times, swapped solo home runs before Solly Drake's second RBI double broke a 2-all tie in the seventh. Brooks Lawrence was the loser for a 16-6 record.

Two-run homers by Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski won for the Pirates and Vernon Law, who tossed a six-hitter. Robin Roberts lost it for a 14-13 mark.

YOGI BERRA's eighth-inning single broke up Nixon's no-hit bid, and the veteran righthander then hung on for his third victory over the Yankees this season after they scored on two errors and a pinch single by Mickey McDermott in the ninth. Jackie Jensen's 16th homer put it away for the Red Sox, who got just four hits off loser Don Larsen.

Rocky Calavito smacked his first major league grand-slammer and Al Rosen poked a solo shot to beat the Tigers for Herb Scone's 13th victory.

Richardson Gains Net Semi-Finals

Newport, R. I., Aug. 17 (AP)—showing up in the semifinals of the Newport tennis tournament is getting to be a habit with Ham Richardson.

When the U. S. Davis Cupper from Westfield, N. J., turned back the challenge of Richmond, Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., yesterday, 10-8, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5 it marked the fourth straight year in which he reached the round of four.

Twice, 1954 and 1955, he went on to win the title to become the first two-in-a-row winner since Australia's Frank Sedgman put on the Casino Club toga in 1951 and '52.

BUT UNLESS Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill., pulls the surprise of the season today against Australia's top seeded Ken Rosewall, Richardson will be surrounded by Aussies in the semifinals.

Rosewall is a top-heavy favorite over fifth seeded Golden. The Aussies have the other two semifinal spots all sewed up. Third seeded Ashley Cooper already is in as Richardson's next opponent following a 7-5, 6-1, 6-1 decision over Whitney Reed of the Air Force yesterday.

Rosewall's semifinal opponent will come from today's all-Australian match between Neale Fraser and Mal Anderson.

Navy Net Champion

Newport, R. I., Aug. 17 (AP)—Ens. Bobby Payne of Richmond, Va., is the 1956 All Navy open singles tennis champion. Ens. Payne defeated Ens. Alan Fischl of Long Island City, N. Y., 9-11, 6-8, 6-0, 6-3 in yesterday's title match.

Four state champions and top ranking American Legion Junior baseball brass converge on Dietz Stadium Saturday for a day-night program designed to crown a Region II champion.

Lou Brissie, former major league pitcher with the Philadelphia Athletics and Cleveland Indians, heads the delegation of visiting dignitaries in his capacity as National Commissioner for the Legion program.

The four state Legion champions are: Yonkers, N. Y., Cranston, R. I., Stamford, Conn., and Trenton, N. J.

Trenton plays Cranston in the opener Saturday at 1 p. m. The Yonkers-Stamford contest follows, with the two winners meeting under the arclights Saturday night.

The Ford Motor Company plaque, symbolic of the Region II title, will be presented to the winning team by George Shively, the local Ford dealer.

ACCORDING to Brissie, this year's teams in Region II are the strongest in years. Bodensstab-Thomas Post 884, Yonkers, won its state championship at Cooperstown, after coming from behind in the semi-finals to down Kingston Post, Third District and Section B titleholders.

Elsewhere, Stamford, Conn. post won the Nutmeg State crown. Trenton, with two national winners and a flock of regional and sectional crowns in the past 25 years, took the New Jersey title and Cranston copped the Rhode Island gonfalon.

The Americanism Commission representative in charge of the Kingston tournament is Sidney H. Schwartz, state of Maine chairman for American Legion Junior Baseball and a well known sports writer with the Gannet newspapers (Press Herald and Express in Portland, Me.). Schwartz, a veteran Legion Junior baseball chairman, is one of the best known baseball figures in the east.

For years, Schwartz has held the Maine baseball tournament on the grounds of the Veterans Hospital in Togus, Me., and, according to doctors, the diamond spectacle is the finest therapy possible.

Watzkas Square Playoff Series With Eagles on 7-5 Triumph

Series to Dietz With Twi-Nighter Next Tuesday

Watzkas struck quickly with six runs in the first inning, then repulsed a last ditch Kingston Eagle rally to square their City League playoff series, with a 7-5 decision yesterday at the Athletic Field.

The third and deciding game will be played as part of a twi-night doubleheader Tuesday at Dietz Stadium. Jones Dairy and Nadler Motors are scheduled in the second game at 8:15 p. m.

Manager Jack Watzkas tossers climbed over Jim Randall for four runs before he could retire a batter in the first inning and added two more before Ted Marable could squelch the rally.

JOHNNY Acker, who was relieved by Jim Mesceda in the sixth when the Eagles rallied for three runs, was credited with the victory. The Eagles, strangely, outbatted the winners, 6-5, but walks and some loose play ballooned the Watzka run output.

Playoff Standing

Team	W	L
Jones Dairy	1	0
Watzkas	1	0
Kingston Eagles	1	1
Nadler Motors	0	1

Watzkas' opening salvo was the result of four walks—to Bob Baumer, Cooke, Cliff Schoonmaker and Len Whitten. Bob Watzka's double, a balk by Randall and Don Herzog's single.

Ted Marable's double behind a walk to Johnny Burris and Schoonmaker's two-base throwing error on Eddie Kithcart accounted for two Eagle runs in the second inning.

TRAILING 7-2, the Eagles rallied for three runs in the bottom of the sixth to chase Acker to cover. The resurgence was built around Marable's stroll and singles to Tom Neal, George Kithcart and Hobart Armstrong. Armstrong and Bob Watzka and Don Herzog of the Watzkas were the leading hitters with two safeties.

How's Fishin'?

Kingston, N. Y. Aug. 17 — Most fellows seem to be finding it not so good this summer. The streams aren't producing like they should and the bass fishermen are rightly disappointed.

We've listened to a lot of tales of woe—but we've also cheered up these same fishermen with a mighty fine haircut. You are also invited to come in for a haircut and talk over the fishing situation.

Wimpy's Upset Miron's, 5-1; City Playoff Is Possibility

Wimpy's Grill ruined Miron Lumber's chances to gain undisputed possession of first place in second half of the City Softball League by blasting the Lumberjacks, 5 to 1.

Johnny Woods pitched a brilliant 4-hitter and got solid batting support from Bob Smith, Tom Hines and Jake Smith. Mike Boyle was the losing pitcher.

Each of the aforementioned trio collected two hits.

As a result of Wimpy's victory, the Miron's are tied with Hilltop Grill in the loss column. Hilltop has won eight against Miron's six.

Miron's have three games remaining, including one with Subway Grill Monday at Block Park. They meet Perry's Tuesday at Hasbrouck Park and have a climactic clash with Hilltop next Wednesday at Block Park. The second half title will probably hinge on the result of Wednesday's contest.

Drop Argentine From Olympics

Lausanne, Switzerland, Aug. 16 (AP)—Argentina has been excluded from the Melbourne Olympics because of government interference with the Argentina Olympic Committee, it was announced today.

Otto Mayer, chancellor of the International Olympic Committee, said Dr. Roldolfo G. Valenzuela, president of the Argentina Olympic Committee, had been ousted by the Argentine government and replaced by Brig. General Huergo.

Mayer said that Dr. Valenzuela had been imprisoned as a supporter of former President Juan Peron and that all other members of the committee had been dismissed and replaced for the same reason.

He stressed that the exclusion of the Argentine team from the Olympics had no political motive, but was made necessary because of the violation of strict Olympic rules against government interference in Olympic matters.

Six Inning Masterpiece

Le May No-Hits Vets, 3 to 1, As KPA Takes Over 4th Spot

The Kingston Patrolman's Association was involved in its fourth no-hit game yesterday. But this time the result was a happy one as righthander Emory LeMay pitched a six inning masterpiece to beat the VFW, 3-1, at Dietz Stadium.

The Police were subjected to three no-hit losses early in the season when they were on the skids. LeMay's performance not only served as some sort of back payment for those frustrating setbacks, but moved the resurgent Cops into sole possession of fourth place in the Fraternal Youth League.

LE MAY HAD a perfect game working for 3½ innings before granting two walks in a row. He escaped damage there and again in the fifth after passing the leadoff batter.

The Vets finally nipped him for an unearned run in the sixth on three errors. A snappy double play then got him out of a jam.

One-Hitter

Sox Defeat Brooks 6-1

Doug Struber and John Hammond combined for a 1-hit pitching chore, as the Hurley Little League Red Sox thumped the Dodgers, 6 to 1, in a battle of tailenders.

The game was settled as early as the first inning, when four walks, two passed balls and three wild pitches accounted for four Red Sox tallies.

A couple of singles and two errors gave the Red Sox a 6-1 lead in the third, the Dodgers having picked up their lone run in the first on a hit and two errors.

Vince Trapanese saved the Dodgers from a no-hitter with a first inning double that drove in Vince Crantz with the only run.

Bill Davis, Hammond and Richard Guess had the Red Sox safeties. First place Yankees take on the Dodgers today at Hurley.

Ike, Stassen Confer

Washington, Aug. 17 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, who wants to dump Vice President Nixon from the number two spot on the Republican ticket, conferred briefly with President Eisenhower at the White House today. James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, told newsmen Stassen spent about 5 minutes with the President "to pay his respects" before leaving for the Republican national convention in San Francisco. By coincidence, Stassen and Nixon were slated to leave Washington National Airport at the same time. The two were taking different planes, with Nixon planning to stop over in Los Angeles before going on to San Francisco tomorrow.

Success Reported In Grip Vaccine

Washington, Aug. 17 (AP)—The Navy and U. S. Public Health Service have reported success in a trial of a new experimental vaccine against certain illnesses "of the grip variety."
Administered last winter and spring to 4,000 recruits at the U. S. naval training center at Great Lakes, Ill., the vaccine reduced the expected frequency of such illnesses by 50 to 70 per cent, a report said yesterday.
But the Public Health Service said "these illnesses... do not include the non-feverish infections generally designated as the common cold."
The vaccine is designed to be effective against three of the 13 recognized types of virus affecting the respiratory system.
The Army has run similar tests and uses a broader definition of these diseases. It has said that while they do not include the "common cold," they include illnesses "commonly referred to as grip, catarrhal fever, virus pneumonia, sore throat and severe colds."

French Say 100 Rebels Are Slain

Algiers, Aug. 17 (AP)—French military headquarters reported today that more than 100 Arab Nationalist rebels had been wiped out in a series of operations in the Constantine area of eastern Algeria.
The rebels meanwhile kept up harassing grenade and pistol attacks within the capital city, but prompt police action killed four of the attackers and wounded three others. Only one European was wounded.
In the Constantine department, the French said they killed 95 rebels in one clash at Fedj M'Zala, 37 miles west of the city of Constantine. French losses were not reported.
Other engagements with rebel bands were reported near Cap Aokas, Saraf and Arris, all in the same area. The French said the rebels lost "several" men in each clash.
In Paris, Defense Minister Maurice Bourges-Maunoury placed an order for 50 more American-built helicopters for use in Algeria. The helicopters are specially adapted for troop transport.

Boy, 13, Found Hanged in Hotel

Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 17 (AP)—A 13-year-old boy, Edward Mackey, was found hanged today in the bathroom of a Hoffman Hotel room where he lived with his father.
Police said the father, Reginald Mackey, broke into the bathroom and found the boy's body. The father could give no reason why the boy would have taken his own life, police said.

Reds Outlawed By West Germans

Karlsruhe, Germany, Aug. 17 (AP)—West Germany outlawed the Communist party as unconstitutional.
Within minutes after the federal supreme court announced its long-awaited decision, police squads in major cities throughout the country swooped down on party headquarters.
PROPERTY WAS confiscated and the offices padlocked. No arrests were ordered.
Immediately after the ruling was announced by Court President Josef Wintrich, a police cordon was thrown around the court building to prevent any Red demonstration.
The ban does not affect West Berlin since the old German capital is not now a part of the Federal Republic of West Germany.

THE OFFICIAL East German radio in East Berlin immediately issued a call to West German workers to hold mass strikes and protest rallies against the ban.
The broadcast compared the action with similar steps taken by Hitler's government. The radio charged that the decision would make it much harder to bring about reunification of East and West Germany.
Reliable reports said the Reds several months ago completed preparations to go underground if the court's ruling went against them.

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 17 (AP)—Former Sen. Glen Taylor still held a 57-vote lead today for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator on the basis of almost complete returns from Tuesday's Idaho primary. With unofficial returns complete from all but five of the 893 precincts, Taylor had 27,919 votes to 27,862 for Frank Church, Boise attorney and political newcomer. Sen. Herman Welker easily won the Republican nomination.

Persons Over 60 May Borrow Home Down Payments

Washington, Aug. 17 (AP)—The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) has announced new regulations permitting persons 60 years old and over to borrow the down payment and settlement costs on homes bought with FHA-insured mortgages.
FHA Commissioner Norman P. Mason said yesterday this was one of several moves by the agency to ease the housing problems of older persons.
Another action, taken in line with the housing bill enacted earlier this month, provides more liberal financing of rental housing projects designed for elderly people.
Non-profit institutions can now obtain FHA-insured loans for such projects up to $8,100 per family unit or up to 90 per cent of replacement cost. Until now, loans could not exceed 90 per cent of the long term value of a unit—usually a lower figure than replacement cost.
